experience

Noel May has over 38 years experience as an accountant and more than 30 years as a partner. Noel is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia.

Noel positions himself alongside his clients as their business advisor, dealing primarily with planning, direction and strategy matters freeing them to pursue their own fields of expertise. Through this close liaison, Noel gains a full understanding of the client's current business and future aspirations. Noel's extensive experience ensures a considered second opinion on all matters, both financial and commercial.

Noel is experienced in the provision of accounting and business management advice concentrating on regular reporting and analysis, in order to monitor progress and success.

Planning for all aspects of your business is essential. Noel has a proven track record in assisting businesses to plan and manage their future, growth and expansion.

Noel's extensive experience in the area of franchising, equips him well to advise both franchisors and franchisees. Noel has developed and advised on many franchise systems, established benchmarking and standard accounting systems, structured and performed pre-acceptance business acumen/viability tests on franchisees and advised on efficient taxation models. Noel has counselled franchisees on the merits of particular franchise investments, installed accounting systems and performance monitoring measures, as well as attended to the associated ASIC and ATO statutory requirements.

Noel also focuses on Business Succession and Exit Strategies helping business owners maximize their payout when exiting their business. Recognising that you can control the succession process rather than have it control you, he assists with planning, devising shareholder agreements, advising on correct business structures, advising on and preparing finance submissions and securing insurance cover.
